The Richness and Sacredness of Indigenous Culture: Caring for Indigenous Persons in Mental Health and Physical Medicine

Wednesday, June 29, 2022 | 12pm – 1pm | Virtual (Zoom)

*Esteemed Guest Speaker: Zhaabadiis Menoomnii
Elder/Knowledge Keeper*

Goals and Objectives

After attending these rounds, clinicians will be able to:

- (i) learn foundational information about the diversity of Indigenous culture, beliefs, values and traditions;
- (ii) examine concepts of “health” and “illness,” both mental and physical from an Indigenous perspective;
- (iii) explore key considerations in providing care and treatments to Indigenous patients to ensure meaningful person-centred, family-focused care is delivered; and
- (iv) understand Indigenous practices around afterbirth in post-delivery, as well as issues relating to the 2SLGBTQ+ community.

Physician attendees will be eligible to receive one Section 1 Continuing Professional Development (CPD) credit as certified by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. Links for providing feedback and registering for CPD credit will be available live in the session.
